

American Psychology-Law Society

APA DIVISION 41

Welcome to the January 2025
American Psychology-Law Society (AP-LS) Newsletter

Our monthly Newsletter provides information about activities, upcoming events, and resources to connect the psychology-law community.

AP-LS aspires to excel as a valuable, effective, and influential organization advancing the science of psychology-law and the translation of psychology-law knowledge into practice and policy.

Call for Co-Chairs for 2027 AP-LS Conference

The American Psychology-Law Society Conference Advisory Committee (CAC) invites applications from individuals interested in co-chairing the March 2027 AP-LS Annual Conference. We encourage self-nominations across all areas of clinical and research expertise.

The CAC will select one representative from the clinical/clinical research arena and one from the experimental/non-clinical research arena to co-chair the conference. Co-chairing the AP-LS conference is a great way to get involved in AP-LS leadership, contribute to the organization, and build connections.

The 2027 co-chairs will begin shadowing the 2026 co-chairs beginning this summer and will begin planning the 2027 conference beginning in summer 2026. Co-chairs receive travel and hotel reimbursement to attend both the March 2026 AP-LS Conference, as well as the March 2027 AP-LS Conference.

Please submit your nomination, including a curriculum vitae and a letter of intent describing your interest in and qualifications for the role, by the end of the day January 15, 2025, at <https://forms.gle/eQR1tjsKmuK4ozwr9>.

Please contact Dr. Emily Haney-Caron, CAC Chair, at ehaney-caron@jjay.cuny.edu with any questions.

Law and Human Behavior American Psychology-Law Society Division 41 of the American Psychological Association

Law and Human Behavior Editorial Fellow

The Editorial Team of Law and Human Behavior is pleased to announce that Dr. Tamara Kang has been selected as the inaugural Law and Human Behavior Editorial Fellow. Dr. Kang is an Assistant Professor in the School of Psychological & Behavioral Sciences at Southern Illinois University Carbondale. Law and Human Behavior's Editorial Fellowship Program seeks to elevate leadership opportunities for early-career psychologists from communities that have been historically underrepresented in research and publishing leadership roles. Dr. Kang will work closely with Dr. Jennifer Cox, an Associate Editor for Law and Human Behavior, to develop editorial leadership skills. Dr. Kang will serve as an Editorial Fellow for calendar year 2025.

Post-Doctoral Fellowship Opportunity on the American Psychological Association's (APA) Applied Team

This is an exciting new opportunity for those with a PhD in an applied subdiscipline of psychology, with a preference to those in non-clinical subdisciplines. As a member of the Applied Team, the Post-Doc will participate in and support applied psychology programs and initiatives, which will provide a great opportunity to learn about timely policy and scientific issues that are critical to the future of psychological science, with great experience gained related to policy, management, funding, and scientific issues. The Applied Team works closely with staff members in Science, Education, and Practice, as well as colleagues in Advocacy, and Communication, in addition to many members of APA, and members of the many Divisions of APA.

Qualified candidates should apply online by January 31, 2025 through APA's application system.

More details about the position, including education and experience required, can be found at Applied Psychology Post-Doctoral Fellow | Career Opportunities at APA
