

American Psychology-Law Society

APA DIVISION 41

Welcome to the December 2024
American Psychology-Law Society (AP-LS) Newsletter

Our monthly Newsletter provides information about activities, upcoming events, and resources to connect the psychology-law community.

AP-LS aspires to excel as a valuable, effective, and influential organization advancing the science of psychology-law and the translation of psychology-law knowledge into practice and policy.

Call for Applications: Embracing Leadership: Developing Skills for Your Career Evolution

Embracing Leadership is designed to provide American Psychology-Law Society (APA Division 41) members with practical training in leadership and with leadership opportunities. The goals of the program are:

1. Provide training for interested members in a variety of leadership skills that could benefit their careers broadly
2. Cultivate interest in leadership within the Division
3. Provide leadership opportunities within the Division
4. Prepare our members to take on leadership challenges

Embracing Leadership will have four activities that will take place over one year, beginning in March of 2025. These activities include:

1. A workshop on leadership on the Wednesday prior to the AP-LS conference
2. Webinars on leadership topics that will occur bimonthly (once every other month), on the first Monday of the month (that is not a holiday) at 9AM west coast time
3. Connecting participants to a mentor already in leadership in the Division
4. Providing opportunities for leadership within the Division by completing an initiative with AP-LS leadership

Applicants are welcome from all career levels, including applicants who are students, ECPs, mid-career, and beyond.

To apply, please fill out the Qualtrics survey linked HERE where you will upload your CV and statement of interest. The statement of interest should provide a brief summary (up to 500 words) of where you are in your career, what interests you about leadership development, what leadership roles you have had, and what (if any) leadership roles you would like to obtain in the future.

Applications are due December 31, 2024. Applicants will be notified about decisions by January 15th of 2025.

If you have any questions about the program or application process, please contact James Andretta (TTC-Chair) at ttc@ap-ls.org.

*Note: As part of the application process, some basic demographic information will be collected through the Qualtrics survey that can be used to track applicants and participants as part of the evaluation of the program. It will help us determine who applies and who is accepted.

Caregiving Grants for AP-LS 2024

The AP-LS Professional Development of Women Committee is thrilled to offer Caregiving Grants of $250-$700 for 20-30 attendees of AP-LS 2024 in San Juan, Puerto Rico. We will give priority to first authors, presenters, students, and early career professionals. This grant is open to any AP-LS member (student and non-student) who serves as a caregiver in any capacity (e.g., child, parent). Funds can be used for any caregiving needs that arise during the conference, including needs at the conference or at home.

Please apply at:

https://universityofalabama.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_4Jilv1WU81DVRGm

Deadline to apply: December 31, 2024. We will notify grantees in late January 2025. Please contact PDW co-chairs, Jenni Cox (Jennifer.m.cox@ua.edu) and Sarah Fishel (srp2yc@uvahealth.org) with any questions.

Bridge Committee Accepting Applications

The AP-LS Broadening Representation, Inclusivity, Diversity, and Gender Equity (BRIDGE) committee is accepting applications for their 2024-2025 awards! The deadline for each award is January 15, 2025. Please see below for a brief description of each award and go to <https://ap-ls.org/awards/> for more information on how to apply.

Access Path to Psychology and Law Experience (AP) Program: Provides financial support to students from groups currently underrepresented in the field and who are proposing research related to psychology and law. The AP program will award up to $3,000 per student, depending on the length of the proposed research experience.

Diversity in Psychology and Law Research Awards: Supports student research on psycholegal issues related to diversity or conducted by individuals from underrepresented groups. Each year the BRIDGE Committee will award up to five mini-grants in the amount of $1,000.

Diversity Travel Awards: Provides travel awards to students from underrepresented groups who are presenting research at the American Psychology-Law Society Conference. Seven awards in the amount of $500 are given each year.

Psychology, Public Policy, and Law (PPPL): Call for Editorial Board

Psychology, Public Policy, and Law (PPPL) seeks applications for the 2025 editorial board. A portion of the board will be rotated off each year so new people can become part of the board. As detailed in her inaugural editorial (Neal, in press), "early each fall, we will open a renewed call for editorial board members, where anyone can indicate their interest in being part of the editorial team" at any of the levels that will be open in each of the years of her editorship. Board members who served in 2024 can indicate their interest in remaining on the board, and new applicants can apply. The position descriptions and qualifications required for each role are detailed in this open call for editorial board members (Associate Editor(s), Consulting Board Members, Principal Reviewers, and Ad Hoc Reviewers).

Application Deadline: December 1, 2024.

Announcing the 2024 Law and Human Behavior Reviewer Mentoring Program

Have you always wondered how people get to be reviewers for prestigious journals? Are you interested in becoming a reviewer for Law and Human Behavior, the official journal of AP-LS, but don't know what that means or how to get experience with providing strong reviews? Do you have limited or no access to a mentor who can help provide this type of experience? If so, now is your chance to develop your reviewer skills!

LHB Editor, Dave DeMatteo, and the LHB editorial team are continuing the Reviewer Mentoring Program in 2025. The program will kick off at the AP-LS Conference in San Juan, Puerto Rico with in-person training and will continue throughout the rest of the year.

The program is designed to provide advanced graduate students (in 3rd, 4th or 5th years of study) and ECPs (within 10 years of last terminal degree) with training and mentoring specifically in conducting strong peer reviews. We will match a small group of Reviewer Mentees with LHB Editorial Board Mentors. Mentees will be assigned 1-2 manuscripts to review throughout 2025, under the guidance of their Mentor.

If you would like to be considered for this program, please complete the application via this link by December 31, 2024.

If you have questions about the program, please contact our Associate Editor, Jenni Cox (jennifer.m.cox@ua.edu) or Editor in Chief, Dave DeMatteo (dsd25@drexel.edu).

Outstanding Teaching and Mentoring in the Field of Psychology and Law: Call for Nominations

Each year the AP-LS Teaching, Training, and Careers (TTC) Committee confers two awards for outstanding teaching and mentoring. These awards recognize teaching excellence in the field of psychology and law in a variety of contexts, specifically through the Outstanding Teaching and Mentoring Award and the Early Career Teaching and Mentoring Award.

For more information about the awards, eligibility, and how to nominate yourself or others, please click: Teaching and Mentoring Awards

This year the TTC Committee is specifically soliciting nominations for individuals who have taught or mentored graduate and/or postdoctoral students (i.e., Category 2).

Winners will be announced at the 2025 AP-LS Conference. Award recipients receive $500, a plaque at the AP-LS conference, and the option to serve as a guest columnist for the AP-LS Newsletter.

Nominations are due by December 15, 2024. Nominations should be emailed to: ttc@apls.org

Submit Your Dissertation for the AP-LS Dissertation Award!

The American Psychology-Law Society invites students to apply for the Dissertation Awards, recognizing outstanding research at the intersection of psychology and law. Winners will present their work at the AP-LS Annual Conference. Submissions should demonstrate originality, quality, contribution to the field, clarity, and contributions to equity, diversity, and inclusion. Submit your dissertation and supporting documents via the AP-LS Dissertation Award Google Form by December 31.

For more information, visit AP-LS Dissertation Awards or contact dissertation@ap-ls.org.
